

Trainline extends international reach for leisure travelers to ten additional countries through partnership with Interrail & Eurail

January 24, 2018

- Interrail and Eurail Passes now available to Trainline customers throughout Europe and beyond
- The partnership extends Trainline's reach into Finland, Norway, Greece, Romania, Serbia, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Montenegro, Macedonia and Turkey

London, 24 Jan 2018: Today, Trainline announces a partnership with Eurail and Interrail, providing its leisure customers in Europe and around the world with access to the full suite of passes known for a borderless European rail travel experience. Making travel to 40,000 stations across more than 10,000 destinations in up to 30 countries simple and stress-free, Interrail Passes (available to European residents) and Eurail Passes (for those living outside Europe and travelling in the Continent) are now available through Trainline's platforms worldwide.

The partnership further extends Trainline's international reach for leisure travellers, particularly in the Balkans region and Scandinavia. Trainline customers will now be able to use Eurail/Interrail Passes to travel in additional countries such as the Nordics, Greece, Romania, Serbia, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Montenegro, Macedonia and Turkey.

Customers purchasing an Eurail Pass can choose between a Global Pass, for travel in up to 28 countries, a Select Pass, for travel across two, three or four countries, or the One Country Pass, for unlimited travel across one country of the customer's choosing. Travellers purchasing an Interrail Pass have the option to pick either a One Country or Global Pass. Both Interrail and Eurail Passes are available for various durations to suit individual travel plans.

Commenting on the partnership, Daniel Beutler, General Manager, Trainline International, states:

"We're genuinely excited to partner with Eurail Group, a company that shares our passion for making international rail travel across Europe as simple, transparent and stress-free as possible. As well as the journeys and fares available from 137 rail and coach carriers in our app, Trainline leisure customers now have access to hundreds of new destinations across Europe."

Also commenting on the partnership, Carlo Boselli, General Manager for Eurail Group, the management company of the Eurail and Interrail brands, states:

"Together with our official channel Eurail.com, we're pleased to be able to launch this partnership with Trainline in order to improve the accessibility of rail travel in Europe to an even wider customer base. Using a customer-friendly online solution, together we'll help bring more people in touch with Europe through an authentic Interrail and Eurail experience."
